BH ties up with Angkasa to organise exam seminars

KUALA LUMPUR: This year, Berita Harian (BH) aims to organise more than 250 series of Seminar Bimbingan Peperiksaan BH, which will include Klinik UPSR BH Didik, Seminar PT3 BH Minda and SPM BH Skor.

BH group editor Datuk Mahfar Ali said he was confident that BH would be able to organise more seminars this year as it would be collaborating with Angkatan Koperasi Kebangsaan Malaysia Bhd (Angkasa).

"The seminars are part of BH's corporate social responsibility in assisting students through effective learning techniques that will be conducted by teachers that are well-versed in their subjects.

"They are also the authors of our education pullout," he said at the opening of Seminar Bimbingan Peperiksaan BH here yesterday.

Mahfar said since it was launched in 1996, the seminars had received good feedback from students, parents and corporate agencies.

"This year, BH continues to receive contributions from several corporate agencies, such as Management Science University, Yayasan Bank Rakyat, Malaysian Resources Corporation Bhd, UEM Sunrise Bhd, Malaysian Industrial Development Finance Bhd, Bernas, Yayasan Felcra, Sime Darby, Perodua and Tabung Haji."

Mahfar said many schools that achieved excellent UPSR results at the state level last year had subscribed to BH's education pullout.

"For example, 13 best schools in Malacca are BH subscribers, as well as seven from 10 best schools in Selangor."
