71 pct of stocks on Bursa M'sia shariah-compliant

JOHOR BAHRU: Seventy-one per cent or 653 stocks out of the 914 listed on Bursa Malaysia are shariah-compliant, says the Malay Strategic Investment Association of Malaysia (PPSMM).

The latest list of shariah-compliant securities, in which Muslims may invest and whose dividends are halal, was issued by the Securities Commission Malaysia's Shariah Advisory Council on Nov 29, it said.

These comprise consumer products, property, services, mining, nfastructure, plantation, technology and finance stocks, PPSMM president Norizan Tukiman told reporters at the association's office here yesterday.

Muslims may invest in stocks of high-potential companies like Tabung Haji Plantation Bhd, MK Land Properties and MyEg, he said.
