

April 25 trial for Tabung Haji duo

KUALA LUMPUR: The Sessions Court on Thursday set three days starting April 25 for the trial of two Lembaga Tabung Haji personnel who were charged with altering the pilgrims fund database and receiving a bribe.

Systems analyst Afizul Md Yasin, 34, was charged with three counts of tampering with the pilgrims funds' database, two years ago.

The second-accused, clerk Roslan Mohamed Som, 47, was charged with receiving RM6,750 in return for organising a pilgrimage for 27 ineligible individuals in 2010.

The duo had pleaded guilty to the charges on February 9. Malaysian Anti-Corruption Commission DPP Mohd Sophian Zakaria informed Judge Rosbiahani Arifin that the prosecution would be calling upon 15 witnesses during the proceedings.
